SECRÉTARY BONAPARTE!

Offers Some Original Suggestions On the Subject

A Plan That Would Wipe Out "Fixed" Conventions and Give Every Fellow a Fair Deal

In an interview Secretary of the Navy Charles Bonaparte suggested the establishment of a legalized "boss" in each political party in each of the states and cities, the "boss" to be empowered to select the candidates for the various stituted a nominating Convention of one for elective offices, thereby doing away with nomi- all elective offices within the state, city or nating Conventions.

Declaring that he was speaking seriously, Secretary Bonaparte continued-

"It is hard, indeed, very hard-often impossible-to get the men who are fit for public office to become candidates. Somebody has to for each place and in inducing him to run for it.

"Unfit candidates can be secured by the bushel, but public life in this country involves such grave sacrifices of both inclination and interest for men of character, ability and high standing that they have to be driven into it by am not sure. There are certainly two sides to a sort of compulsion, through appeals to their the question." sense of public duty, in some cases of party loyalty.

DUTIES OF "LEGALIZED BOSS."

"Now, by a 'legalized boss,' I mean an individual authorized on behalf of one of our parties to choose all candidates of that party for elective offices within a designated territory, to do intelligently, deliberately and carefully the work which is supposed to be done by nominating Conventions or Primaries, but which would be done by such agencies so thought lessly, hurriedly and negligently that it is done usually, in fact, by the local 'boss' or ring in secret.

"Of course, every facility should be afforded for making 'independent' nominations, whether within the organized parties or without, so that all citizens who may be dissatisfied, for whatever reason, with the 'regular' nominations may be able to vote effectively, according to their convictions.

PLAN FOR CHOOSING "BOSS." The reporter asked how Mr. Bonaparte would choose his proposed "legalized boss."

"He ought to be elected annually," said the Secretary, "by the legal voters of his party at a primary held under all the sanctions of law, and at which only this one office, or, rather, position, should be filled.

"Each voter would have only to say whom he considered the best man in the party to be concounty, as the case might be.

"This would be a very simple duty, and I am inclined to think it could be satisfactorily performed by the average voter, and I likewise think it probable that no one of the persons who have been known as 'bosses,' and who have do a great deal of work in finding the right man known something about politics, should be elected at such primary.

DISQUALIFICATION SUGGESTED.

"Perhaps it might be wise to provide that the 'nominator' I have suggested should be himself disqualified to hold public office, but of this I

The Secretary was then asked whether he expected to get up an agitation in favor of establishing "legalized bosses."

"No," he said, "the thoughts I have just expressed are crude and undeveloped, and probably worth no more than you will pay for them, but I am inclined to the belief that if somebody with half my years and more time would leisurely take these matters up seriously, he might perhaps work out something of benefit to the public and tending to promote good Govern-

I was operated upon by skilled physicians five times in three years without any success and was given up to die. My weight dropped from I64 pounds to 100. I had heard so much of Cooper's New Discovery and Quick Relief but must admit I had but little faith in them. I decided however to give them a trial. THOUGHTFUL THINKERS.

This means you, Mr. Farmer. Time was when Farmer Corntassel was not supposed to think; but times have changed, and he is now considered among the brainiest thinkers in the world, and the sale of gold bricks has materially decreased. Nowadays he demands and must have the BEST. Here is a little thought that is worth your while. Have you ever seen a "Handy" Low Wheel Wagon? Ever hear of them? Here is a picture of how they look.

Come to our wareroom and see the original and let us show you some reasons why we think you ought to have one for your farm work. Our time is yours. We are here to serve you.

Owners of the steamboat Alys Gray, a vessel plying the Ohio river, were fined $500 by Judge W. G. Dearing, Surveyor of the Port at Louisville, for failure to equip the boat with lifeboats Because of extenuating circumstances, the Judge allowed an appeal to be taken to the Bureau of Navigation, and the fine will in all probability be remitted.

The rivers at Pittsburgh went opposite to what was predicted by Prophet Poe. It is said now that unless a heavy rain sets in that will last for several days, there will not be a sufficient rise in the rivers to permit of taking South the millions of bushels of coal in the harbor before Thanksgiving. There is still a good packet stage, however, and the packets are all running.

MOUNT OLIVET.

The Mt. Olivet telephone exchange is taking advantage of the fine fall weather to get its line in condition to begin business. Some very fine poles are being brought from the vicinity

A protracted meeting began at the Baptist Church Sunday night. The meeting is to have the aid of Rev. W. B. Powell, an evangelist of splendid ability, who will arrive Thursday to assist the Pastor, Rev. Yates.

John Linville, a man of great religious zeal, has been conducting a series of very successal services at Ogdon Schoolhouse. He is wholly destitute of education, but has wonderful power as an exhorter and winner of souls.

The excessive dry weather is retarding the growth of late sown wheat and grass and the farmer would like very much to get to stripping tobacco. Prof. John T. Brown is a teacher who is in charge of Fivelick District in this county. He has caused a warrant to be issued against a young man who, he alleges, has disturbed his pupils by singing within their hearing during school hours,

"John Brown's dead and the big day's over," and the somewhat more recent chestnut,

The young man has thus far eluded the vigilance of our officials, and it is a question whether he has or has not a right to sing on the public highway, even if it does arouse the risibilities of the Professor's pupils.

It was Martin Van Buren, I believe, that gave utterance to the words: "The sober second thought is essential, and seldom wrong." John A. Wheeler of near this place is doubtless impressed with its truthfulness. The other day Z. A. Thompson of Carlisle came along on the lookout for a nice suburban farm. Wheeler priced his at $8,000, which after some dickering resulted in a trade and the deed made. Now Wheeler wants his home back, and has offered $750 profit to allow him to retain it. It is said that Thompson will not accept less than $1,000 and is not eager to take for some time; head has ached and back also; has slept poorly, been quite nervous, and nearly fainted once or twice; head dizzy, and heart beats very fast; then that bearing-down feeling. and during her periods she is exceed ingly despondent.
